WITNESS: Holly Ehrlich w/f [REDACTED]

DETAILS:

On 08-21-13, at approximately 2:17am, Officers R. Barnosky and D. Toth were dispatched to 21230 Eureka Rd., Room 149, Taylor, MI on the report of an assault. The location was the Red Roof Inn motel.

Upon arrival, the officers spoke with Ms. Ehrlich who stated that she had received a call from her friend Brittany Bonsall advising that a Diamond Seals would be coming to the room to retrieve her belongings. A short time later Seals arrived and knocked on the door. Ehrlich observed only Seals at the door and opened it. When Ehrlich opened the door Seals, Nathaniel Manning, "Boss" and "Orlando" entered the room. Nathaniel Manning held Ehrlich down as Seals began punching her multiple times in the face. "Boss" began to videotape the assault using a camera while Reginald Walker remained outside in a vehicle. At some point all the subjects fled in a tan 2000 Chevrolet Blazer with a dealer plate. Ms. Ehrlich was observed to have a bruised right eye and small lacerations to the right side of her face.

Ms. Ehrlich told the officers that the subjects would be hanging out in the area of Marvin and Superior in Taylor. Ehrlich further told the officers that the subjects were on felony parole and carried guns.

The officers, along with others, proceeded to the area of Marvin and Superior, finding the Chevrolet Blazer parked in front of 13693 Marvin. Officer Toth knocked on the door and a subject later identified as Johnny Nettleton answered. Officer Toth asked Nettleton if he lived at the location and Nettleton said he owned the home. Officer Toth asked Nettleton if he could come in and speak with him. Nettleton said yes and advised the officers that he had nothing to hide. As Officers Toth and Barnosky began to enter the house a black male later identified as defendant Walker attempted to shut the door on the officers. The officers proceeded into the house and Officer D. Diggs-Taylor observed a large bag of suspected crack cocaine lying on the floor in plain view and within arms length of defendant Walker. Officers J. Thivierge, J. Graves, C. Cates, C. Wietfeldt and P. Collop entered the location to assist as there were several subjects inside. All the subjects were detained and later placed under arrest for loitering in a place where drugs were sold or kept. Defendant Walker was also detained and later arrested. Officer Collop patted down defendant Walker based upon information provided by Ms. Ehrlich that he was known to carry guns. Additionally, based upon training and experience Officer Collop knew that firearms were commonly kept in close proximity to narcotics and are a tool of the drug trade. Officer Collop located 23 individually wrapped baggies of suspected crack cocaine in Walker's front right pocket as well as 12.1 grams of suspected cocaine powder. Officer Collop also recovered $5,311 in Walkers left front pocket.

All other subjects found in the residence, with the exception of Walker, were arrested and later charged with local ordinance violations in the 23rd District Court.

Officer Diggs-Taylor recovered the bag of suspected crack cocaine from the floor where Walker had been. Discovered in the bag was a total of 48.1 grams of crack cocaine, 14.9 grams of suspected powder cocaine and 25.6 grams of a white substance believed to be used to "cut" the cocaine. Also in the bag were (16) white pills with "Watson 387" imprinted on them (suspected Hydrocodone), 45 blue pills with "20839 V" imprinted on them (suspected Alprazolam/Xanax), 7 pills with "93/48" imprinted on them (suspected Metformin) and 3.16 grams of an off-white substance believed to be heroin. In plain view on the kitchen counter was a scale and sandwich baggies. All the suspected narcotics were weighed, field tested and placed into evidence by Officer Toth. Officer Toth also placed the US Currency recovered from defendant Walker's person into evidence.

A closer inspection of the currency found on defendant Walker revealed that it consisted of (14) $100 bills, (12) $50 bills, (159) $20 bills, (7) $10 bills, (12) $5 bills and (1) $1 bill. Defendant Walker was served Forfeiture paperwork for the currency.

pills. Based upon training and experience, Det. Schwein knows large sums of money, in small denominations, are commonly kept in close proximity to narcotics and is indicative of the sale of drugs. A review of defendant Walker's criminal history showed him being arrested and charged with Possession with Intent to Deliver a controlled substance at least five times. LEIN also showed Walker currently on parole for a controlled substance case.

On 08-21-13, Det. G. Piche prepared a search warrant for 13693 Marvin. The search warrant was approved by APA S. Zieger and signed for execution by 23rd District Court Judge G. Salomone. Detectives with the Taylor Police Department executed the search warrant on 08-21-13. Recovered from residence was a medicine bottle of Metformin in the name of Reginald Walker, a package of razor blades, a glass pipe commonly used to smoke crack cocaine as well as residency paperwork for Johnny Nettleton. All items were located, photographed, recovered and placed into evidence by Dets. Schwein and Piche. While executing the search warrant, Dets. Schwein and Piche were approached by neighbors who reported an abundance of short stay traffic at the residence over the past few days. This short stay traffic, along with the narcotics recovered from Walker and the residence, is indicative of the sale of drugs.
